ALHS STUDENTS

Our students are self-motivated learners. They seek an academically challenging, inquiry based curriculum which encourages questioning and discussion, and teaches critical thinking. These students thrive in a small school setting emphasizing involvement in the community and natural environment.

ALHS CURRICULUM

Inquiry Learning

- ◆ Socratic Seminars
- ◆ Academic Coaching
- ◆ Interactive Lecturing

Experiential Education

- ◆ Internships/Mentorships
- ◆ Service Learning
- ◆ Projects

Natural Environment Studies

- ◆ Outdoor Investigations
- ◆ Land Ethics
- ◆ Natural Sciences

ALHS MISSION

Aldo Leopold High School (ALHS) provides an engaging and challenging program emphasizing direct experience, inquiry learning, stimulation of the creative process, and involvement in the community and natural environment.

ALHS supports the intellectual, social, and personal growth of the individual, and develops graduates who demonstrate respect and responsibility for themselves, their communities, and the natural environment.
